PART III: STUDENT CONDUCT (See also College Policy 3400: Student Code of Conduct)

A. PARTICIPATION

1. Participation Responsibilities

- a) Students are required to follow course schedules and participate in online class discussions on a regular basis. Punctual submissions of all of the scheduled learning activities are expected of all students.
- b) Where absenteeism adversely affects a student's progress and performance, behavioural probation and/or withdrawal from the program may result.
- c) Students planning an extended absence from the course must notify or make arrangements with their instructor in advance. Instructors are not obligated to provide alternative instruction or assessments in order to accommodate student absences. Failure to notify the instructor may result in withdrawal from the course.
- d) See individual course outlines for any additional attendance and participation requirements.

B. PROFESSIONAL REQUIREMENTS

1. Student Conduct

- a) Students are expected to behave in a professional manner while in class and/or on Moodle.

This includes being respectful of and contributing to the learning environment in accordance with the student code of conduct. For additional information, see Policy 3400: Student Code of Conduct-Rights and Responsibilities.

- b) Students are expected to be prepared for all classes prior to its start. Assigned materials are to be completed by students; such materials and textbooks are not necessarily reviewed page by page by the instructor.
- c) The student is responsible for researching and obtaining notes of missed sessions. Instructors will not provide personal reviews to students for missed material.
- d) See individual course outlines for any additional professional requirements.

C. PROBATION

1. If a student has a term or cumulative GPA less than 2.67, the student will be placed on academic probation for at least the next semester.
2. For additional information: See Policy 8619: Probation
